

Volunteering Solutions Adds New Destinations: Ghana & Kenya

Volunteering Solutions is expanding its program base to new countries like Ghana and Kenya, while constantly adding new and exciting volunteering programs in existing countries.

October 15, 2007 (FPRC) -- Volunteering Solutions is one of the fastest growing International Volunteering Organizations in the world today. In less than 6 months it has served more than 60 volunteers. In the process of constantly adding new programs and destinations to its list. Volunteers can now enjoy affordable and reliable volunteer options in Ghana and Kenya. Volunteers have a choice to work with the Orphans, Tech English in schools, work on a medical health project or join the exciting journalism internship programs. The programs are located in Nairobi – Kenya and Accra, Cape Coast in Ghana.

“Volunteer in Rural India during summer and explore Taj Mahal and go on a safari with this new program introduced recently. We aim to make volunteering and travelling combined with some exciting adventures, a memorable and affordable experience for all. Volunteers can join this program for 4 or 8 weeks and experience life in India while exploring new destinations” says Anurag Vij – Program Manager for Volunteering Solutions. The difference between the programs offered by Volunteering Solutions and other volunteering organizations is that, they provide the most affordable, down to earth and realistic prices and services. This is the reason more and more people are joining their programs everyday. You can also join their exciting programs, just visit www.volunteeringsolutions.com for more information.

Volunteering Solutions Mission - Our mission is to promote volunteer work in countries that need it the most, by connecting the right people with the right opportunity in each country. We aim provide meaningful, affordable & reliable volunteer abroad options to everyone.
