

Volunteering India - Affordable Volunteer Work In India Starting $535

VolunteeringIndia.com brings the most affordable volunteering experience in India. With programs starting at $535 and the maximum options to choose from VolunteeringIndia.com is a great way to volunteer in India.

January 16, 2008 (FPRC) -- India is a great destination for travellers, gap year students, backpackers and volunteers to travel around and help the needy. <http://www.volunteeringindia.com> brings together affordability and variety of volunteer work in India, like no other site does.

Every year more than 100000 volunteers travel to India. Companies abroad are charging $2000 or even more for a 2 week volunteer work placement in India. This is the reason says, Saurabh Sabharwal "that we have kept our prices low, and still offer the same or even better services to volunteers from around the world". <http://www.volunteeringindia.com> gives travelers a vast variety of volunteer programs across India and has great locations to offer. You can volunteer in Delhi, Jaipur, Bangalore, Dharamshala, Mysore, Chennai, rural Rajasthan and even more options would be coming soon. No other place you can find such great variety and options starting at only $535.

Volunteering India provides volunteer work in many areas like, volunteer at orphanage in India, volunteer for women support in India, Volunteer with street children in India, Volunteer in rural India, Volunteer Summer Programs in India, Volunteer teaching English in India, Volunteer in HIV/Health programs in India and lots more. All programs run throughout the year and volunteers can join from 2-23 weeks in duration any time of the year.
