

Stunning 'Alaska And The Great Northwest Tour' Available Through YMT Vacations

YMT Vacations, a leader in the vacation tours industry, now offers a 15-day 'Alaska and the Great Northwest' tour featuring a luxurious seven-day cruise through the beautiful Alaskan Inside Passage.

February 24, 2009 (FPRC) -- EL SEGUNDO, CA -- Popular discount vacation tour operator YMT Vacations, has announced its fabulous new 15-day tour of Alaska and the Great Northwest. The inclusive Alaskan vacation tour package features a seven-day cruise aboard a luxurious five star Holland America cruise line ship as well as a scenic escorted land cruise through some of the most beautiful national parks and cities of the northwestern United States.

This combination land and sea tour is specially priced from $1,499 plus tax. Additional money-saving discounts, including $200 off select sailing dates or 50 percent off a second person on select cabin bookings, are also available when booking this new Alaskan cruise deal.

"Our Alaska and the Great Northwest tour is an unbelievable vacation package. This all in one vacation conveniently combines professionally escorted Alaska tours, an incredible Alaska glacier cruise and a scenic land cruise of the northwestern United States. We are proud to offer such a winning combination for our customers to enjoy," says Oliver Milton of YMT Vacations (<http://www.alaskancruises.cn>).

The Alaska and the Great Northwest tour is one of several of the diverse Alaska cruise deals offered by YMT Vacations. The tour package begins in Vancouver, British Columbia, as guests board their luxurious accommodations on an exquisite Holland America cruise ship. The seven-day cruise features picturesque sailing through the beautiful Alaskan Inside Passage, as well as stops at several of the most historic and scenic ports of call, including Juneau, Skagway and Ketchikan.

The second half of the vacation package, the land cruise, begins on the ninth tour day. With the escorted land cruise, guests enjoy a beautiful drive through the Cascade Mountains, visit the Grand Coulee Dam in Spokane, Washington, and the breathtaking Lake Coeur d'Alene in Butte, Montana. Additional scenic stops include Jackson Hole and the famous Yellowstone and Grand Teton National Parks.

"The Alaska and the Great Northwest tour is one of the most popular and affordable vacation packages available through YMT Vacations. At the end of their tour, our customers are always astounded by the wide variety of sites they visited and memorable experiences they enjoyed," says Milton.
