February 25, 2009 (FPRC) -- EL SEGUNDO, CA – YMT Vacations, a leading discount vacation tour operator, has announced its new 15-day tour of Alaska and the Pacific Northwest. As part of this tour package, guests enjoy a scenic seven-day cruise aboard Norwegian Cruise Line's Norwegian Star ship through Alaska's beautiful Inside Passage.

In addition to the luxurious cruise, the vacation package also features an escorted motor coach tour through the spectacular Pacific Northwest. This new tour is offered from $1,399 plus tax, although additional discounts, including 50 percent off a second person on select cabin bookings or $200 off specified sailing dates, are available.

"At YMT Vacations, we truly offer the most value-added Alaska cruise deals available. Not only does our tour of Alaska and the Pacific Northwest include a breathtaking Alaskan cruise, but it also features day stops at some of the most naturally beautiful destinations in the Pacific Northwest. It is no surprise that this land and sea combination tour is one our most popular vacation packages," says Oliver Milton of YMT Vacations (<http://www.alaskatours.be>).

As with many of YMT's Alaska tours, the Alaska and the Pacific Northwest Tour offers picturesque sailing amongst glaciers, in addition to stops at some of the most scenic and historic Alaskan ports of call. Guests first board their spacious accommodations aboard the superb Norwegian Star cruise ship in Vancouver, British Columbia. From there, they idly sail through some of the most beautiful scenery in the world, while frequently stopping to explore distinctive destinations including Skagway, Juneau and Ketchikan and more.

Upon conclusion of the cruise, the next phase of the vacation package, the motor coach tour, begins on the ninth tour day. Guests enjoy scenic day stops including visits to Seattle, Lake Tahoe, Reno and San Francisco, fully appreciating the diversity offered by each unique Pacific Northwest destination.

"Our customers enjoy the added value that we conveniently build into every vacation package. The Alaska and the Pacific Northwest Tour includes not only the seven-day cruise, but also hotel accommodations throughout the motor coach tour and all gratuities for baggage handling. When booking with YMT Vacations, our customers know they will be professionally taken care of from the minute the tour begins," concludes Milton.
