

YMT Vacations Now Offering A Spectacular 17-Day Alaska Grand Cruise Package

Leading vacation package provider YMT Vacations will now offering a 17-day 'Alaska Grand Cruise' vacation featuring 15 days of magnificent Inside Passage views.

February 26, 2009 (FPRC) -- EL SEGUNDO, CA – YMT Vacations, a leading discount vacation package provider, recently announced that it is now offering a unique 17-day Alaska Grand Cruise package featuring spectacular glacier views.

The cruise package, which includes 15 days of sailing on Alaska's beautiful Inside Passage, features luxurious accommodations aboard the five star Holland America cruise line ship, ms Statendam.

Departing from beautiful Vancouver, British Columbia, YMT Vacations' Alaska Grand Cruise includes pampered and luxurious sailing along more than 1,000 miles of the spectacular Inside Passage. Along with enjoying glacier views from their spacious cruise cabins, guests on the Grand Cruise experience the true Alaskan experience through several distinctive ports of call, each offering a unique slice of the undiscovered Alaskan lifestyle.

From the first stop at the salmon capital of the world, Ketchikan, to historic Juneau, as well the nature-filled city of Haines, guests can choose to explore each destination at their leisure or may select from many available Alaska tours.

"We are so pleased to offer such a wonderful selection of Alaska cruise deals. The Alaska Grand Cruise package is one of our finest choices because of the variety of activities, scenery and ports of call. When our customers are seeking a memorable Alaskan vacation, the Alaska Grand Cruise is always one of our top recommendations," says Oliver Milton of YMT Vacations. (<http://www.alaskacruisedeals.cc>).

Unlike other cruise packages, the YMT Vacations' Alaska Grand Cruise offers spectacular views every single day of the vacation, even between ports of call. Guests can peek out their windows to enjoy the magnificent Glacier Bay National Park, which features tidewater glaciers, picturesque snow-capped mountain ranges, spectacular ocean coastlines, as well as freshwater rivers and lakes.

Additionally, guests aboard the Alaska Grand Cruise also enjoy panoramic views of the famous College Fjord, featuring the highest density of tidewater glaciers in Alaska.

"Our customers appreciate the exceptional planning and attention to detail that has been put into the organization of the Alaska Grand Cruise package. When guests step aboard, all they need to do is simply sit back, relax and enjoy a once in a lifetime experience," says Milton.
