January 24, 2011 (FPRC) -- A coalition of Brunswick County churches has come together to bring the 2011 Hearts & Souls Coastal Carolina Marriage Conference, featuring Steve & Annie Chapman, to New Beginnings Community Church in Shallotte, NC, on February 18-19, 2011.

This event is designed to be an encouragement to married and engaged couples in the Carolinas who want to make good marriages better or to enrich marriages facing challenges. The conference provides an entertaining forum for couples to focus on their marriage for a weekend and to discover God's plan and design for their marriage.

With over twenty-five years of ministering to married couples, Steve and Annie Chapman will charm their way into the hearts of attendees and encourage and strengthen all who attend. Using songs about marriage and the challenges of relationships and parenting, the Chapmans will present a concert of music and stories that will entertain, inspire and delight.
