

Sentry Selected as 2010 Accredited Management Organization of the Year

Sentry Management, Inc. received the 2010 Accredited Management Organization of the Year Award from the Institute of Real Estate Management's Central Florida Chapter No. 60 (IREM).

March 2, 2011 (FPRC) -- Sentry Management, Inc. received the 2010 Accredited Management Organization of the Year Award from the Institute of Real Estate Management's Central Florida Chapter No. 60 (IREM), at the organization's recent annual awards dinner. The award is given to the Orlando area company that most advances professionalism in property management and contributes significantly to the success of the local Chapter.

"Receiving this award from our business peers demonstrates the expertise, professionalism and integrity of our Community Managers in maintaining high financial standards," said James W. Hart, Jr., President of Sentry Management and a Certified Property Manager (CPM) with IREM. "It is their dedication to the communities they serve that I believe IREM is honoring."

"Sentry Management is integral to our chapter's continuing success," said, Meridythe Kanaga, CPM, IREM Association Executive. "Not only does Sentry support our educational offerings, but they provide the over 1,000 exchange reports a year on multi-family and condominium income and expenses that are vital for IREM's national published reports."

The Institute of Real Estate Management is a non-profit professional organization that educates and promotes professionalism in the property management industry. Through IREM, designations may be obtained through course study and testing of real estate property management knowledge. IREM also offers the Accredited Management Organization, AMO® designation, to real estate management companies whose standards and services are the best in the business.

Sentry Management is a full-service community management company. Sentry's sole business is the day-to-day operation of communities, homeowner associations and condominiums. Sentry is accredited as an AMO® (Accredited Management Organization) by the Institute of Real Estate Management, providing independent evaluation that Sentry has one of the highest operating and financial standards in the industry. Sentry operates in dozens of localities in Florida, Arizona, Georgia, Indiana, North Carolina, South Carolina and Tennessee.
