In tough economic times, how to increase business productivity is critical for any company. EzTimesheet employee attendance tracker from halfpricesoft.com saves small business time and money on tracking of employee working, leave, vacation and sick time

September 29, 2011, Raleigh, NC (FPRC) -- In tough economic times, how to increase business productivity is critical for any company. Small Businesses looking for ways to save money and time to automate tracking of employee hours and calculating payroll figures can try out the new ezTimeSheet employee attendance tracking software from Halfpricesoft.com (<http://www.halfpricesoft.com>) for free from <http://www.halfpricesoft.com/time-tracking-time-sheet-download.asp>, with no obligation and risk.

Answering the demand of customers, the new features come with this release include:

- Auto-calculate PTO, leave time, vacation time, sick time based on the accrual plan
- Employee leaves tracking and report
- Employee vacation tracking and report

Known for affordability and ease-of-use, ezTimeSheet employee attendance and time tracking software was designed specifically for small business owners, non-profits and HR department managers. It is loaded with intelligent, intuitive features, but not burdened by complicated suites of expensive applications small businesses will never use or need.

"We have a strong following of small business customers who love our other time-saving and money-saving software titles and requested a software solution to one of their biggest time-wasters: employee time tracking," said Dr. Ge, founder of Louisville, Ky.-based Halfpricesoft.com. "ezTimeSheet was developed to meet that need. Customers now spend a fraction of the time they used to on time-tracking tasks."

Priced from just $39 per installation, ezTimesheet employee attendance tracker is affordable for any size business.

"In tough economic times, how to increase business productivity is critical for any company," said Dr. Ge, founder of Halfpricesoft.com. "We hope ezTimeSheet software can help business owners spend less time tracking employee attendance and more time ensuring their business succeeds."
