

My Own Chaos Announce 'Chaos Across Canada Tour'

My Own Chaos, the hottest metal band in Vancouver has announced its 'Chaos Across Canada Tour'

June 5, 2012 (FPRC) -- Vancouver's MY OWN CHAOS, a female fronted metal band that fused traditional metal with thrash and straight ahead hard rock are proud to announce dates for their upcoming 'CHAOS ACROSS CANADA TOUR', which will see them venture across the Canadian provinces, kicking off their tour in Vancouver, BC on June 26th and going east to return west on July 28th for a tour wrap up show in Innisfail, AB.

The band will be touring on their well-received debut 'MY OWN CHAOS', a concept album that has charted in the top 10 Loud College Radio Charts across the country. The album features a who's who of guest stars like Jello Biafra (Dead Kennedys/Lard), Joey Keithley (DOA), Ani Kyd (Alternative Tentacles Recording Artist Fuel Injected.45), Steve Jack (Rockhead) and Brian Langley (Infernal Majesty).

'The My Own Chaos album was written about my divorce and the emotional rollercoaster that goes along with it. At times I was questioning my sanity and doing all that I could to hold everything together. I really dove deep into my emotions and let all the issues out. This album is my therapy' commented My Own Chaos vocalist Connie Chaos (who also fronts the tribute bands Sister Sabbath and Zeppelina).

Over the last year in promotion of their first release, the band has completed several Western Canada tours and is lined up to share the stage with Powerman 5000 in September 2012.
