Demon's Cycle Now Stocking Accel's Single Fire Super Coils

June 7, 2012 (FPRC) -- Demon's Cycle Inc., a custom motorcycle builder and custom Harley-Davidson motorcycle parts supplier, is pleased to announce that it now stocks Accel's highest output motorcycle coil. The Accel Single Fire Super Coil is designed to replace the original coil and can be easily installed in the same space without any modification.

The coil, which is made in the USA, has a state of the art construction which insures higher output, faster rise time, and longer spark duration. It also includes a finned coil body which ensures better cooling and an extended coil life.

"Demon's Cycle is always looking for the best custom parts and the Accel coil meets our high standards," said Thomas Steinbacher, owner of Demon's Cycle. "Replacing the original coil can give a bike quicker starting, smoother idling, crisper throttle response and quicker acceleration."

The 3 Ohm coil fits 1970 to 1999 Harley-Davidson® Evo Big Twin and Sportsters with single fire engine and any equivalent custom bike (e.g. S+S®, RevTech®, Ultima® and big bore motors). The coil is available in black or yellow.
