October 23, 2012 (FPRC) -- Pompano Beach, Florida - Stradalli Cycle, the high performance carbon bicycle manufacturer, is pleased to announce that Team Stradalli's Kristin Sanders took home all three titles at the Radweltpokals Cycling Classic championship in St. Johann in Tirol, Austria. Her brilliant achievement also meant that she was the first woman, in forty-four years, to take home all three titles while riding on the Masters category.

The Cycling World Cup championship in St. Johann in Tirol, Austria is a historic and prestigious event where Kristin Sanders dominated her category. The three-time US National Champion and five-time Florida State champion rode her Stradalli Trebisacce RED-PRO with determination to win the time trial, the hill climb and the road race.

Kristin's full carbon fiber frame based Trebisacce RED-PRO uses Shimano Ultegra Di2 electronic shifting which offers the rider a near perfect balance between shifting speed and weight.

"The Radweltpokals Cycling Classic championship is a spectacular event set in the beautiful Austrian mountains. It is enjoyable and challenging, but most of all it is a world class event," said Thomas Steinbacher of Stradalli. "In winning these races, Kristin has again shown that she is not only a great all round rider, but she is also an amazing sprinter. Everyone here at Stradalli congratulates her."

Kristin was riding for Team Stradalli Cycle on a Stradalli Trebisacce RED-PRO with a full carbon fiber frame, Shimano Ultegra Di2 electronic shifting and Stradalli wheelset. It proved to be the perfect companion for Kristin.
