Booking agency provides luxury villas in Phuket for groups of all sizes

Sydney, NSW February 24, 2014 (FPRC) -- With their recent increase in tourism, accommodations in Phuket are in great demand. Says David Anderson, spokesperson for Villalet.com, "While certainly the majority of the tourists come for the beaches, the natural beauty found of the island in the forms of green hills, jungle forests, and plantations make it a sight to behold. However, tourists today want more from their holidays than a boring hotel room on the beach."

In response to this, the Australian company books and manages Phuket Villas on Villalet.com. Anderson explains, "With teams in Sydney and Bali, we match our client's travel needs with local knowledge to create a fantastic holiday. We recognise the increasing need for travellers to enjoy their holidays in a spot where the living space is more plentiful, they have more privacy, and a localized experience. Our villas are personally chosen by our team, and we help recommend the perfect locale for anyone's holiday."

The spokesperson goes on to say, "Large parties traveling often have difficulties finding quality accommodations, especially when they all want to stay together. We solve issues like that with palatial Koh Samui villas up to nine bedrooms. Families can travel together or combine with friends to save on the trip. Each and every villa is different, and we realize the expectations of modern travellers for every little detail about all aspects of where they will stay, from the basic details about the number of rooms and sizes of the beds, pictures and location maps, down to the availability of nanny services, personal meal chefs and drivers. Our website offers complete, accurate photographs of all the villas, giving visitors peace of mind when traveling to an unseen destination."

Price is always a consideration, and with the increase in booking sites, tourists have an inclination to shop around. Says Anderson, "To save you the trouble of visiting a multitude of different of websites, we guarantee the best prices for our locations. We are also not just a booking service. Instead, we have representatives in all our villa locations so we are never more than a phone call away. Additionally, we guarantee our pricing. Villalet guarantees the best prices for the villas in our portfolio. If anyone reserve a Villa through Villalet and then shows us that they could book the same place for the same dates at a lower rate that is viewable and bookable on another website within 48 hours of making the reservation, we will match that rate, or beat it."
