

Share and Raise, New Crowdfunding Website for Free Fundraiser Website

One of the BEST FREE ways to raise money online & Get your online donation website! Start a Fundraiser for your Idea, Event or Project now!

December 14, 2014 (FPRC) -- Looking for a way to have a free fund raiser ? There are new Crowdfunding website that will help you create a fundraiser website for free. This new Crowdfunding website will allow anyone to sign up for free and create their own fund raiser page.

Aside from that, this new website will also allow all users to have a fast email support and keep every donation that the user receives. In addition to that, it also helps to feature the users project using the front page and have a responsive website for any kind of devices. It also supports multi language and multi-currency.

Many people wanted to create their own fundraiser website but creating a website for fundraisers can be a daunting task because they need to spend time and effort not to mention that it can be costly. This new Crowdfunding website will help anyone to create their own fundraiser page for free and most importantly, it is very easy, anyone can do it. By following the three simple and easy steps they provide to you, anyone can create their own fundraiser page for free.

Share and Raise will help anyone who wants to raise money for various categories including sports, non-profits, music, film, charity, special events and a lot more for free. Other amazing features that this new Crowdfunding website has, is that the donations will be send automatically to the customer and they do not need to make a request for funds since the only thing to do is to follow the three simple steps such as create a page, share it everywhere and collect your funds. This will help anyone to create their own fundraiser for free.

The user can now promote their fundraiser page for free. Whether it is for raising money for a special event, project or idea. This new Crowdfunding website will help those who want to create their own fundraiser page. They are passionate to help people reach their goal, Even for the fundraisers that are not going as well as expected they will try to help them out, that is why they created this new Crowdfunding website and the reason why they make it for free to start a fundraiser.

Their aim is simply to help people who are in need. They are true believers that something small can turn into something big by offering people to create their own fundraiser page for free.

For more information about this new Crowdfunding website, please visit:
<http://www.shareandraise.com>

Contact Information

For more information contact Khamfa of sharing and Raising (<http://www.shareandraise.com>)

Keywords

crowdfunding, fund raising, causes, non-profits, charities fundraising charities

You can read this press release online here