

Direct from Las Vegas to Pigeon Forge

Brian Hoffman is proud to announce the 2015 premier show of Remembering Red - A Tribute to Red Skelton inside the Live Rock N' Roll Theater on the Parkway across the street from the Titanic.

February 12, 2015 (FPRC) -- The Live Rock N' Roll Theater is the perfect setting for a Tribute to Red as it compliments the amazing array of musical shows featuring songs of yesteryear. "Rock Around the Clock", "Remembering the 80's" and "History of Rock N' Roll" are sure to delight audiences of all ages.

Brian Hoffman has been headlining shows in Las Vegas since 2008. His gift is the joy of laughter that he brings to the baby boomers while performing the routines of the late great Red Skelton.

Red Skelton, the son of a former circus clown and a cleaning woman, was introduced to showbiz at the age of seven by Ed Wynn, at a vaudeville show in Vincennes. At 10, he left home to travel with a medicine show through the Midwest, and joined the vaudeville circuit at age of 15.

He was the star of "The Red Skelton Show" on NBC Radio from 1941 to 1949 and CBS Radio from 1949 to 1953. He starred in his own television show, which aired from 1951 to 1971. He created such characters as Clem Kadiddlehopper, Gertrude and Healthcliffe, Freddie the Freeloader and more.

Over the years, thousands have enjoyed sold out performances in Las Vegas. The jokes and routines are Red's and Brian delivers them so meticulously that it seems like the master Skelton himself is back with us.

This former Las Vegas headliner is scheduled to open March 17, 2015. Now visitors and locals of Pigeon Forge can enjoy the same great shows that Las Vegas residents and tourists have adored for over 6 years.

Brian Hoffman's tribute to Red Skelton has been one of the top 12 shows to see in Las Vegas, according to TripAdvisor.com and we plan on achieving the same ranking or better in the Live Rock N' Roll Theater on the Parkway in Pigeon Forge Tennessee.

The show is slated for 12 noon on Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday, tickets are just $29.95, with options to add more days as the Pigeon Forge tourist season gets into high gear.

You can find out more about the show or Brian by visiting his official Red Skelton Tribute Show website: <http://www.RedSkeltonComedyShow.com> or calling 724-513-4031 and as Red always said at the end of his show, "Goodnight and may God bless".

Contact Information

For more information contact Fred Scholtz of Red Skelton Tribute Show
(<http://www.RedSkeltonComedyShow.com>)
702-245-2393

Keywords

The Red Skelton Show
Live Rock N' Roll Theater
Pigeon Forge

You can read this press release online here