

MTC Limousine & Corporate Coach, Inc. Recommends Hiring a Limo for a Product Launch

Appearance remains critical when launching a new product and arriving in a limousine for a product launch projects the right image, reports MTCLimousine.com

Bedford Hills, NY, April 7, 2015 (FPRC) -- Companies looking to launch a new product need to ensure they project the right image when doing so. With the help of MTC Limousine, accomplishing this has never been easier. The company provides limousine service in new york and provides a wide range of vehicles to meet the needs of company employees involved in this launch. Individuals find they aren't limited to limousines as the company fleet includes sedans and SUVs, vans and mini-coaches and luxury motor-coaches.

"Companies wishing to transport a team to a venue for a product launch find the limo service in nyc to be the perfect option for executives. To transport other employees, the luxury motor-coach or mini-coach remains a great choice. Transporting a number of individuals, up to 55 in one vehicle, has never been easier with the help of this company," Charla Wong, spokesperson for MTC Limousine & Corporate Coach, Inc., explains.

Individuals may need to be brought in from other locations to assist with the product launch and MTC Limousine & Corporate Coach, Inc. may be of assistance here also. The company maintains 550 locations throughout the world and offers a single point of contact for transportation services. Companies contact them for information concerning putting services, vehicles, client profiles, directions and more, allowing the client to focus on the actual product launch as opposed to logistics.

"Requests may be booked online using the online reservation system or clients may contact the company directly. Staff members remain on call 24 hours a day to assist clients, regardless of where they are and where they are heading. Time remains of the essence for many and MTC Limousine & Corporate Coach, Inc. offers services around the clock to meet the needs of clients at any time," Wong continues.

Green companies often worry about making use of limousines, SUVs and motor-coaches for transportation to and from a product launch as they believe consumers may feel they are being wasteful. When one chooses to make use of MTC Limousine & Corporate Coach, Inc. this is never a concern. The company remains committed to sustainable development through social responsibility, economic progress, and environmental protection.

"Our goal is to meet the needs of society right now , while understanding future generations will need to do the same and respecting their ability to do so. The company continues to search for new opportunities and ideas to address environmental concerns to solve business problems while driving profitability and growth. Clients know they can count on us in this area, reducing their fears of projecting the wrong image for their business. Environmental consciousness remains of great importance to us, as it should to every company," Wong proclaims.
