May 18, 2015 (FPRC) --Have you ever read a book of God and Satan actually talking? Wouldn't you like to know how they communicate? Do they debate, argue, fuss, or even fight? Do they say they love or hate each other? What do they say about us humans and how do they both empower, complain, punish or react to the sins we commit on earth? How does God reward us when we obey his word? Does the devil reward his demon followers? Is God or Satan responsible for the evil in our lives? This book answers these questions and much more. You will be surprised at what they say about you!

Set in the heavens, in God's office, "An Actual Conversation between God and Satan" is a biblical, but funny story at times of Satan visiting God's office and talking about humans. Satan believes that people only loves God, because God made them rich with family, health and wealth. God and Satan goes over a "Death List" and a "Kill List" with a thousand names, which includes locations, sins and suggested punishments. God and Satan fuss, argue and debate about what the punishment should be. Satan is excited about the list, but he has different intentions. Find out who is responsible for the evil in our lives. Is it God or Satan? You will be surprised.
