

For Tea's Sake Reports Success at 2016 Atlanta Gift and Home Furnishings Show

Company's well-attended showroom helped others share in the love of tea, with many new connections made, For Tea's Sake reports

New York, NY -- January 28, 2016 (FPRC) -- For Tea's Sake reported the success of the company's exhibition at the just-concluded 2016 Atlanta International Gift and Home Furnishings Market trade show. With over 7,000 brands represented at the show, For Tea's Sake enjoyed consistent interest from attendees at the company's showroom on floor 15 of the AmericasMart complex. Founded out of the love of tea, For Tea's Sake is a leading online retailer and distributor of custom-made blends that incorporate only the best available tea leaves, as detailed at <http://www.forteassake.com> .

"We had a wonderful time at the 2016 International Gift and Home Furnishings exhibition," For Tea's Sake representative Nima Nassirian said, "It was great to meet so many interested people and share our love of tea with them, and we would like to thank everyone who stopped by our showroom. We have a big year planned at For Tea's Sake, with some amazing new blends in the pipeline, and we commit to keeping up with the quality and respect for tea that have already made us so successful."

Built nearly sixty years ago, Atlanta's AmericasMart exhibit hall and trade centers remains one of the world's largest facilities of its kind. The complex hosts a number of trade shows every year, one of the best-attended of which is inevitably the annual Atlanta International Gift and Home Furnishings Market. With hundreds of thousands of buyers and as many as ten thousand wholesalers and distributors in attendance, the event consistently ranks among the most important of all for many in the industry.

Established in July of last year with a mission of spreading the founders' love of tea and paying tribute to the long, rich history of the beverage, For Tea's Sake has quickly become a highly respected source for some of the most sought-after blends to be found anywhere. Emphasizing the simple perfection that the best tea leaves have to offer, the company's passionate experts craft blends that reflect both deep truths drawn from the world's great tea traditions and unique, personal insights that each brings to the process.

In exhibiting at the Atlanta International Gift and Home Furnishings Market from Jan. 12 through 18, forteassake representatives helped others understand just how magical tea can be. The company's showroom on floor 15 of AmericasMart was a highlight for many attendees, with samples being enjoyed and orders placed throughout the show's run.
