Valducci's Pizza and Catering, a New York City based Italian food caterer, today announced the redesign of its website, giving visitors a better experience online to find what they are looking for when trying to book and setup their next catered event.

Margaret, the manager, said "I absolutely love the new website! It looks great on the computer and more importantly, it looks great on people's phones. That was something that was missing from our old website. It wasn't mobile friendly."

Valducci's started as a pizzeria in Staten Island back in 1989 and in 1999 they started catering their delicious "Original Famous Pizza" to Manhattan and the tri-state area in their mobile Italian Pizza Truck. The Valducci pizza food truck can be found in the streets of NYC and at events around the New York, New Jersey and Connecticut tri-state area.

The redesigned website now features an updated modern appearance with new graphics and easy to navigate pages and has complex yet simple catering forms for people to enter all the details of their event in order to get a better estimate of the catering job for their event. Valducci's can serve almost any type of Italian food for special events and their NYC Pizza Truck and can be modified to serve pizza, meatballs, sausage and peppers, zeppole's and panini's.

"We've been feeding NYC for almost 30 years. We upgrade our trucks, kitchen equipment and processes all the time. It's about time we brought the business into the digital marketing age," says Margaret, the manager of Valducci's. "I am excited to have the people of the City of New York visit our new website. I am sure the feedback will be great."
