

Voy Media Relaunches Website With Brand New Design Offering Best Functionality On All Devices

Voy Media has created a brand-new website to increase functionality and provide the most immersive experience to potential social media marketing clients.

Voy Media has created a brand-new website to increase functionality and provide the most immersive experience to potential social media marketing clients. Floral Park, NY, United States - March 14, 2017 /MarketersMedia/ -- Social media is one of the most powerful and all-encompassing tools of our age, used as much for information sharing as it is for socializing, with powerful but as yet largely untapped marketing potential. Since Facebook first went public, there has been consternation from businesses frustrated with their lack of results. In actual fact, this comes from using old school methodologies in a new medium. Voy Media Facebook Marketing Company is a consultancy that can help businesses optimize their approach for the new paradigm, and has just relaunched its website with a brand-new design to offer potential clients the best possible experience.

The new website has been optimized for user experience, with a fully responsive format that loads quickly and seamlessly on any device or screen size. The site features clean lines and compelling copy, with a breakdown of their unique approach, and evidence of its effectiveness from case studies and testimonials.

The website also has full chat functionality with the company's support team, so individuals can make instant enquiries. The site features a transparent breakdown of prices and packages, including frequently asked questions that help people understand the opportunity of optimized Facebook marketing.

A spokesperson for Voy Media explained, "We are thrilled to have launched our new website to deliver a better experience to our potential clients. We understand that the first impression is all-important, and that the website has a powerful part to play in establishing our credibility and authority with our audience. It was time for us to walk our talk, and we believe this new design does exactly that. We are now represented as we are: as foremost online marketing experts. We hope this relaunch will help us connect to more new clients than ever, and deliver them the best Facebook marketing services available anywhere online."
