

Brain 9D Launches Brain Health Platform On Indiegogo

Brain 9D Partners With Funded Today To Bring In More Pledges

Brain 9D Partners With Funded Today To Bring In More Pledges Melbourne, Australia - March 15, 2017 /FundedToday/ -- Brain 9D has just launched a campaign to fund their unique brain health website and app. They hope that, with the help of Funded Today, they can completely fund their production and deliver their product to all backers.

Product Specs

Brain 9D is an application that internalizes and tracks data to help keep users healthy. It comes equipped with face analyzation, a mood tracker, brain training and support groups. The app puts users through a series of tests and then determines a likely diagnosis, treatment or prevention options.

Pricing and Availability

Brain 9D has partnered with Funded Today in hopes to bring in more pledges to their campaign. Once the project concludes in April, the product will be produced and shipped to all backers by July 2017. The starting price for a Brain 9D subscription is $65 for the year.
