Over 390 customers reviews have been provided for the Mommy Please food set. A recent five-star reviewer wrote "Bought for my 6-year-old grandson. He loves playing with it and making us food to eat. Everything is small, but its pretend. Wouldn't want real to life size, it would be too large. It is perfect for our needs. It's all plastic. Excellent for the price. It should provide him hours of fun, and it will last along time. It's fun junk. I mean it's pretend plastic food what could go wrong? It doesn't smell. You are getting what your paying for. It provided more food options than expensive wood types that only give you a few food items. I would purchase again."

The Mommy Please play food set is durable and makes an excellent addition to daycares or doctor office waiting rooms, as well as home play areas. The exact date of the sale will be announced soon, and although Mommy Please has increased production in anticipation of the sale, customers are encouraged to by early, to ensure the toy food set is not sold out.
