SEO managers can now get up to 300 backlinks with a 500-word announcement

SEO managers can now get up to 300 backlinks with a 500-word announcement Cleveland, United States - March 17, 2017 /MarketersMedia/ -- EconomyPR.com, the press release writing service for SEO managers, non-profits and entrepreneurs, announced today that is now offering a write/distribute service for 500-word press releases. The new service gives customers distribution to 300 media sites with a longer, more in-depth description of their announcements

"Sometimes more is more. If you want it, we offer it," said Hugh Taylor, CEO of EconomyPR.com. "Search engines favor richer content in many cases, so a 500 word announcement can be useful for this purpose. Also, sometimes you just have a lot to say!"

The 500-word press release service enables the customer to include fuller details of the announcement that are not possible in a standard 300 word press release. For instance, in a product launch, a 500-word press release can describe product features in depth. A 500 word press release can also include more quotes from experts and customer testimonials.

EconomyPR.com distributes its press releases through MarketersMedia, one of the world's top online newswire services. With MarketersMedia, EconomyPR.com is able to offer press release customers about 300 backlinks from media sites. Each press release can include up to three hyperlinks, a photo and a link to a video URL.

EconomyPR.com offers press release and blog writing services at affordable rates. It specializes in press releases for search engine optimization (SEO) managers, entrepreneurs, Amazon Sellers, crowd-funders and non-profits. CEO Hugh Taylor has managed public relations in the Fortune 500 as well as for several venture-backed startups.
