Sun, warm weather, and beaches, after a long winter they may seem like a long way away, but Teddy Shake has warmed up the winter with their best-selling pink flamingo float. As spring and summer approach, a company spokesperson issued a statement reminding customers that with the Teddy Shake partnership with Amazon.com, free shipping is available for the pink flamingo float.

"There are many advantages to our partnership with Amazon.com. First, they are the top site for online shopping for customers around the world. Our pink flamingo float is available everywhere due to our partnership with Amazon," explained Teddy Shake spokesperson Bailey Anderson. "The other reason that many people are excited about, is their shipping. Every Amazon Prime customer receives free two-day shipping on every purchase. Any other customers can receive this free shipping benefit on combined purchase over $49. This is a great service, and value to our customers that we are very grateful for."

The Teddy Shake flamingos are large pink flamingos that measure 80-inches in length. They are made of a bright pink, durable vinyl that withstands hours of play and extreme temperatures. The float is large enough for an adult to lounge on, or to be ridden by several children, and is suitable for all ages.

With over 90 reviews, customers love the Teddy Shake pink flamingo float. 99% of customers have rated the Teddy Shake pink flamingo float four stars or more, with the average rating for reviews a 4.9 out of 5 stars. One customer wrote a five-star review and said "I got this for my mom since she has a pool in her backyard, and it's epic! It's a HUGE float and is awesome. All the kids fight over who can ride on it, and honestly, two can fit at once. Next year we will probably get a second one because everyone likes this one so much. I can't wait to use it next year at the beach too."

The Teddy Shake pink inflatable flamingo is priced at $39.99 right now. Teddy Shake offers a money back, satisfaction guarantee for every float purchased.
