

Blackbird Label Launches Indiegogo Campaign For The Stealth Pant

Blackbird Partners With Funded Today To Bring In More Pledges

Blackbird Partners With Funded Today To Bring In More Pledges Hong Kong - April 13, 2017 /FundedToday/ -- Blackbird label has just launched an Indiegogo campaign for their lookalike pants. They have brought on Funded Today to help bring their product to a wider audience and to generate more pledges to the campaign for the remaining months.

About The Stealth Pant

The Stealth Pant is a "dress slacks lookalike sweatpant" created by Blackbird Label to eliminate the need for stiff and uncomfortable office wear. The pants are wrinkle-resistant, flexible and machine washable. The fabric is breathable and moisture-wicking, allowing for quicker dry times and more mobility. The Stealth Pant also features extra deep pockets for phone storage and come in black.

Pricing and Availability

The Stealth Pant is available to back now on Indiegogo. Blackbird has hired Funded Today to help bring in more pledges for their campaign. Once the project ends, the pants are set to be produced and shipped to all backers worldwide by October 2017. The starting price for one pair is $75.
