

JUICED Launches Campaign For Wireless Group Charging Station On Kickstarter

JUICED Partners With Funded Today To Bring In More Pledges

JUICED Partners With Funded Today To Bring In More Pledges Myrtle Beach, SC, United States - April 13, 2017 /FundedToday/ -- JUICED has launched a Kickstarter campaign for their unique wireless charging station. They have brought on Funded Today to help introduce their product to a wider audience and bring in more pledges for the remaining weeks of the campaign.

About JUICED

JUICED is a wireless charging system that can charge up to six devices at once. It comes equipped with a three-station base and three wireless charging packs. Each individual pack can last an entire night and provide an iPhone with an additional 50 percent battery life. JUICED eliminates the need for charging cords, allowing users to roam freely while charging their device. JUICED comes in black or white and comes with adaptors to cater to other mobile phones.

Pricing and Availability

JUICED is available to back now on Kickstarter. They are working with Funded Today to bring in more pledges for the campaign. Once the project ends, the device is set to be produced and shipped to all backers worldwide by July 2017. The starting price for one unit is $29.
