The inspiration for creating this recipe came from a desire to provide useful, actionable information to anybody facing the challenge of cleaning the home naturally with a homemade product.

The Full Recipe Guide Goes Over The Following Points:

Natural Ingredients - Learn what items are required to make an effective homemade cleaner and why they were chosen. Wood Cleaner Recipe - How to make the homemade wood furniture cleaner. How To Use - Find out the best way to use the homemade cleaner for wood furniture and other wood surfaces.

Jennifer Lane, Owner at Loving Essential Oils spoke at length about the recipe, excited to share the details, the reasons behind creating a guide on natural cleaning recipe and what Loving Essential Oils hopes to accomplish with it: "It is empowering to use natural ingredients to make homemade products you are proud to use in your home. The scent that is left behind is natural and non-toxic unlike store bought wood furniture cleaners. Not only that, you will also feel comfortable using the cleaner while your children or pets are home. No need to open the window and air out the house after you are done cleaning. No toxic residue is left behind, I love this about making homemade product, you know exactly what is in them and how safe they are. Make you wood furniture shine with this natural recipe."

Health conscious families and anybody interested in natural cleaning recipe or facing the challenge of cleaning the home naturally with a homemade product are invited to review the recipe guide online directly:
