WiseGuyReports.Com Publish a New Market Research Report On - "Cryopreservation Systems Market 2017 Global Analysis, Opportunities and Forecast to 2022". Pune, India - April 14, 2017 /MarketersMedia/ --

The analysts forecast the global cryopreservation systems market to grow at a CAGR of 12.89% during the period 2017-2021.

Cryopreservation is the process of preserving living organisms, cells, or tissues by cooling them at very low temperatures to avoid any damage caused by unregulated chemical kinetics. Phenomena that can cause damage to cells during cryopreservation mainly occur during the freezing stage. This includes solution effects, dehydration, extracellular ice formation, and intracellular ice formation. Many of these effects are reduced by cryoprotectant (CPA). Once the preserved material is frozen, it is comparatively safe from further damage. However, maximum storage period is considered to be 1000 years.
