These are the 4 books Dr.Hines has authored, Simplicity in Poetry, Jonesborough Battlefield: Atlanta Campaign and the Mysteries of Peachtree Creek, Women of the Bible and Special Ladies in Poetry, and College Mouse. The books were written with the aim in mind to inspire women, mothers, and seniors of all ages to achieve the improbable. There's also particular excitement about this launch because this multi-book signing event is a celebration of all four books being relaunched as a motivation to what is possible at any age of life.

The Four Book Bundle "Book Signing" sets its main focus on the announcement of the coming new play "The Life and Death Of A Dream": a production based on the Korean War 1950-1953 by Dr. Edith Hines. Lovers of history and the country will likely find a particular interest in this revelation from this Gold Star Mother's dream 19 years later were 33,000 Americans were killed. The book's cover art was created by Dr.Edith Hines and Oni K. Jones and The Four Book Bundle "Book Signing" is being released by Dr.Edith Hines.

Dr. Edith Hines has a background as America's oldest podcaster at 86 and a Gold Star Mother that is a playwright, poet, motivational speaker and soon to be best-selling author with these four books being republished. This experience helped shape the creation of the books and Edith's relationship with God in the earliest part of her life. She has been a military wife for 30 years and a Gold Star Mother for over 40 Years. She has received a Doctorate of Humane Letters (DHL) and serves as a resource person for Interdenominational Women's Ministries. She is also a volunteer anthologist for military families.

When asked about why she wrote the books, Hines said: "This multi-book event is dedicated to the announcement of the coming new musical play entitled "The Life and Death of a Dream" about the Korean Conflict in 1969 dedicated to American Gold Star Mothers, Inc."

Hines hopes that the book will to enlighten America to the current, historic and growing significance of the Korean Conflict Americans are still facing today and the sacrifice that has already been made by so many Americans in the past. This positive outlook from the author is certainly a testament to her optimism considering some of the mishaps during its creation. As a result of the current Korean crisis, Dr. Hines decided to republish these books together in celebration of her coming play and to inspire readers of every age to take action because America needs them to be strong and be knowledgeable about America's history with Korea.

In a recent interview, the author made a point of thanking Pastor Samuel Hines, Geneva Chandler, Lyra Lewter and Oni K.Jones for their part in the creation and promotions of these books, saying: "Thank you for your inspiration and support, without it many Americans would not know this impactful story."
