It is almost one month into spring, where days are still shorter, the weather is cooler and unpredictable, many days are filled with rain. Add to this the end of the school year, where students and teachers are pushing to cover material and stressed about final grades. This time seems like a perfect time for a fun release. Teddy Shake announced today that they have declared May 1 of this year as Summer Fun Day.

"We launched our silk Hawaiian leis, because we knew there was a market and customer base for this product," explained Teddy Shake spokesperson Bailey Anderson. "Our customers have told us how much they enjoy using our leis for weddings, graduations or many other parties. We've decided that spring needs just a bit more fun, and have declared May 1 as summer fun day. We want to encourage customers to dress in summer clothing, wear our flower leis, and have this day as a reminder that the longer, brighter and warmer days of summer will soon be here."

Each Teddy Shake silk Hawaiian lei measures thirty-six inches in length. This makes the leis easy to wear, put on or take off. The leis are high-quality construction, and the flowers are made of a high-quality silk, to ensure they are comfortable for wearing, even for long periods. The colors of the Teddy Shake silk leis are vibrant, and they cannot help but bring a smile to faces and serve as a reminder of warmer, happier times.
