The team at Bay Center Chiropractic consists of three doctors of chiropractic who are Dr Brian Wilmovsky, Dr Kelly Wilmovsky D.C. And Dr Jared Andrews D.C. Together with their team of massage therapists and chiropractic staff, they provide a range of services to the people of Olympia, Centralia, Chehalis, Skelton, Lacey, Tumwater, Tacoma and Seattle.

To welcome new patients to their clinic, they are now offering them a free exam and consultation to get to know them and any conditions they may. They use a number of specialist chiropractic techniques to help treat a vast number of conditions.

Some of the techniques they employ are adjustments, cervical and lumbar traction, posture correcting, head weighting, foam wedging to re mold the spine, digital x rays, EMG computer scans and massage therapy.

These procedures can help to treat spinal and posture issues, headaches and migraines, neck pain, back pain, TMJ, Sciatica, Whiplash, numbness and tingling and pregnancy issues. They also help with sports injuries and problems with spinal discs such as bulging and herniated ones.

Bay Center Chiropractic's goal is to provide result driven care to help correct and treat the cause of a patient's problem not just tend to the symptoms. They also specialize in treating and eliminating pain in the body.

The site states that they also accept most insurance plans and a list of the insurance companies they work with can be found on their website.
