In a statement issued today, Cosmopolitan Collection announced that the launch of their acrylic makeup organizer has been a success. El Paso, TX, United States - April 19, 2017 /PressCable/ -- Cosmopolitan Collection announced the launch of their acrylic makeup organizer a success. To date, the organizer has over 200 reviews of Amazon.com, where the average review was 4.7 out of 5 stars with 97% of reviewers saying they like their organizer.

"This has been a very exciting time for us," exclaimed Cosmopolitan Collection company spokesman Rob Bowser. "We invested time and research into creating a quality product that we felt would be useful to customers - and they love it! Countless numbers of satisfied customers have shared their stories, their photos and how they like to use the organizer. We have found that uses for the organizer doesn't have a limit. Some customers report using it for office supplies, craft supplies, as an organizer for screws, nuts, bolts and small tools....there are so many possibilities. We are grateful for this response and want to assure our customers that we are committed to our product."

The clear makeup organizer was designed by Cosmopolitan Collection is great for all ages, and was designed to help people everywhere to easily organize their beauty products. Made of a durable acrylic resin that is scratch resistant, waterproof and shatterproof, the makeup organizer is attractive as well as useful. There are four drawers with ergonomic handles that slide in and out easily that customers love. The organizer also has 12 additional spaces for storage that can hold everything from makeup brushes to lipstick to nail polish.

A verified purchaser wrote a five-star review and said "Instead of having your makeup in random makeup and travel bags, this organizer helps keep everything accessible and neat! I like that it is clear so you can see where everything is without digging through it. Additionally, I like that the organizer comes in two parts so you can stack them or use the drawers section separately (for more space). I used to have an issue with not being able to find lipsticks because they would be in some random bag that I took on a trip months ago, but now I have everything out, easy to find, and ready to go! I highly recommend this product!"

The Cosmopolitan Collection makeup organizer is currently on sale for $34.99 and available only on Amazon.com. Free shipping is available on all orders over $49.
