Since their release at the end of last year, the Teddy Shake gel pens have become a customer favorite and best seller. This week company spokesperson Bailey Anderson issued a statement about plans for the gel pens.

"These past months have been a whirlwind," explained Anderson. "Sales have been more than double the projections we had made. Demand for the gel pens has been so high, we have had to increase production several times. Customers have been so enthusiastic and have shared pictures of their artwork and stories of how much they love our gel pens. This is why we created this product - for the customer. We have learned so much, and now want to take this knowledge, process it, and with this information, develop a mission statement for the gel pens."

The Teddy Shake gel pen set includes 105 pens of a variety of color styles. Some of these colors include milky, glitter, neon, rainbow and metallic. Each gel pen contains sixty percent more ink than other gel pens, and the ink is a special formula non-toxic gel that is also acid-free. The Teddy Shake pen is designed with a special tip that ensures a smooth flow of ink while writing. This will help prevent the gel pens from skipping or bleeding during use. All of these qualities make the Teddy Shake gel pens perfect for use in scrapbooks, journals, adult coloring books, school projects and more.

Currently priced at $27.99, the Teddy Shake gel pens can be purchased only on Amazon.com.
