The local HVAC service company is excited to offer this new location to the Victoria TX community.

Where most businesses tend to just wait around for people to notice, AC Repair Corpus Christi has decided to be a little more forward with the start of its new Victoria TX HVAC repair service.

Jack Harkin, Owner at AC Repair Corpus Christi, says: "We are very excited with the launch of our new AC Repair Victoria TX location because we wanted to bring our award winning service to the Victoria, TX area. It should be really worthwhile and we're hoping it helps the community find a trusted and reliable air conditioning company they can count on."

AC Repair Corpus Christi has always made a point of standing out when compared to other HVAC/R service companies in the Corpus Christi area so opening their new Victoria, TX location should be no different.

This is a great chance for the Victoria, TX residents to try a new HVAC company and receive the dedicated and reliable service so many customers have come to count on over the years.

AC Repair Corpus Christi has been serving the Corpus Christi, TX area since 1975. To date it has served over 10,000 customers and has become recognized as an award winning air conditioning and furnace company. Their new location can be found at 1102 E Rio Grande St #150, Victoria, TX, 77901.

Jack Harkin also said: "While AC Repair Victoria TX may not be the only business with this kind of offering, local residents are choosing us because we are trusted, on time, and provide great service."

When asked about their new air conditioning service in Victoria Texas, Jack Harkin said: "We think it's going to be a hit because the Victoria, TX people need a reliable HVAC service company".
