Movis Private Tours has released today the news: its "Eastern Europe Private Tour" aims to call potential travelers for a memorable adventure. In one intensive private Eastern Europe tour round tour with start and end in Vienna, the traveler will visit Krakow, Prague, Budapest, Dubrovnik, Lake Bled, Plitvice lakes, Sarajevo, Belgrade and many more amazing places.

The tour was planned with a specific focus on people looking for the best experiences in unforgettable trips to beautiful places. Rok Puppis, the owner, believes that "We all have the need to travel and relax, so why not combine cultural experiences and embark on a journey that will mark your life not only like a tourist, but as a close friend too?".

When asked about why they released the new article now, the owner at Movis Private Tours said that the tour was already available, and that they only want to invite new travelers for this beautiful, great experience: "Our Eastern Europe Private Tour is perfect to garner all the benefits that visiting historic places has: culture, fun, beautiful scenery, the perfect combination for anybody who wants to live a non-ordinary trip."

Interested parties can find out the details of the private Eastern Europe tours.

Movis Private Tours was officially founded in 2008 and is a travel agency that offers private tours through Mediterranean Europe, and which provides exclusive services to individuals who would like to experience and live the region they are visiting not as a tourist but as a friend and local. The biggest strength of Movis Private Tours is precisely the ability to offer, besides the dazzling and customized experiences, the opportunity to experience these trips as a friend of the place the traveler is visiting, and not just like another ordinary tourist. Its unique position within its segment gives it the authority to offer not a tourism opportunity, but an experience for life on beautiful amazing private tours to Eastern Europe.

Calling potential travelers for a memorable adventure, these news gives valuable information to the traveler that will benefit by the possibility of creating beautiful memories in amazing places. This insight simply wouldn't be possible without the almost one decade spent in offering the best private tours through the Europe world so far.
