Oral and dental health is essential for general well being, as infections starting in the mouth can spread to other parts of the body, leading to severe complications. For this reason, routine dental appointments are recommended to prevent any issues that might pose a threat to optimum oral and dental health.

Medical and technological advances have made most modern dental procedures painless, safer and more effective, with many clinics providing services aimed at reducing any discomfort typically associated with dental appointments.

Ebenezer House Dental Care is a Swindon dental practice providing a wide range of family and child-friendly dental services.

The Swindon dental practice offers dental services in a friendly and relaxed atmosphere, aiming to provide its clients with painless and comfortable dental interventions for the entire family. The clinic works with professional licensed and certified dental specialists to offer a wide range of dental procedures for all its clients' needs and preferences.

The clinic provides a wide range of routine dental care services, implants and cosmetic dentistry for everyone interested in maintaining or restoring their dental health. Ebenezer House Dental Care offers patients in Swindon procedures such as cosmetic crowns, bridge and veneer work, professional tooth whitening, implants and many others.

The Swindon dental practice works exclusively with professional staff to provide high-quality, safe and reliable services. Stephen Tittensor is the practice owner, and he offers a unique approach to orthodontics by focusing on the use of arch expansions to create extra space, rather than removing healthy teeth. The clinic also features two dental hygienists.
