Teddy Shake announced today that in the fourth month of sales for their 105-piece gel pen set, they received four new five-star reviews from verified customers on the Amazon.com listing for the best-selling gel pen set.

"We invested a considerable amount of research and development so that we would have a long lasting, superior gel pen," explained Teddy Shake spokesperson Bailey Anderson. "We made the decision to use Amazon.com as our exclusive selling partner for the gel pens, because they can help us reach customer around the world, and have a fantastic facility for shipping products, many of which shipments qualify for free shipping. The one piece we could not predict was the customer response, and if they would like our product enough to leave reviews on the Amazon listing. These Amazon reviews are so valuable, as they help other customers who are considering our gel pens, know that this is a quality pen that they want, even before they see it, feel it, or try it out."

Every set of Teddy Shake gel pen set contains 105 different pens, with colors ranging from milky, rainbow, glitter, metallic and neon. Each gel pen holds 60% more ink than the other gel pens on the market, which means that the Teddy Shake gel pens will last much longer for the customer. The Teddy Shake pens are made using a high-quality process and materials, to ensure that they do not bleed through paper or skip while writing. Since these Teddy Shake gel pens are lead-free, acid-free, and non-toxic, they can be used in scrapbooks, as well as adult coloring books journals and other art projects.

The five-star review for the gel pen set says, "I love these pens. I use them for Journaling and planning. They are also good for coloring as well. They write smooth, and the ink has lasted longer than expected in the colors I use the most. There are so many color choices and varieties. Glitter inks are my favorite. I haven't been able to get the rainbow swirl inks to actually write in the rainbow, but there's so much good about this set that outweighs that. Its a great value for the number of pens you're getting. So if you want good value and plenty of pens to choose from, this set of gel pens fits the bill."

The Teddy Shake colorful gel pen set is sold exclusively on Amazon.com. The pens are currently priced at $27.99, and Amazon.com offers free shipping on any order over $49.
