Online marketing has seen significant developments in recent years, as more and more people have become accustomed to using online resources for business information. According to recent surveys, more than 90% of all consumers have used online reviews and Google searches to find products and services, making online visibility crucial for overall business success.

Along with other Local Search Engine Optimization strategies, social media is one of the most effective ways to build a solid online reputation and engage in direct contact with potential clients. Almost half of all Facebook users admit following brand pages simply to get shopping suggestions and a clear majority of users who have had positive client-business interactions on social media are likely to recommend that specific business to their friends or family.
