

Multi-Genre Pastor Releases Book of Devotions

Rev. Paul Zimmer is full of surprises when writing his books. From a "very real" trilogy memoir, depicting his troubled path leading him to his true calling, to a truck driver accused of murder, and now his latest release, a book of devotions

September 15, 2017 (FPRC) -- Gifted with many talents, the Reverend excels in crafting his words that include, brute honesty, "bust-your-gut" humor, and biblical truths all weaved beautifully into his books. Zimmer is also the recipient of 'he Albert Nelson Marquis Lifetime Achievement Award'.

Rev. Zimmer and his wife, Shelly, write and sing Gospel music. They recorded an album in 1985. They have copyrighted numerous songs, and a book of poems that are set to popular songs from the 1960's to the 80's rock and roll generation. They have performed music all over the southern California area, including a Christian gathering at Knott's Berry Farm.

Convoy Murder

Jake was about to have it all. That is... until a dead body is discovered. This bright young man was truly destined for greatness, even before he finished his masters degree in Financial Management. However, like so many other Americans, his dreams and career burst when the recession bubble burst, forcing him to put his life on hold and take up driving big rigs. Somewhere between his college achievements and looking for his first job in Financial Management, he developed a deep, dark secret that no one, including his lovely young wife and adoring parents could have imagined. And it was partly due to the hidden lies and secret life that he ended up being charged with murder and imprisoned.

Once in prison, Jake was stalked by fear and danger with his every move. The reader will follow Jake on a journey that includes a pit of sexual liaisons, and a series of twists and turns in the plot; underscored by the greed of even those who Jake trusted the most. During his brief but deadly ride through the justice system, Jake discovers that he wasn't the only master of deception and deadly plans. Convoy Murder has its shares of laughter, chuckles and plenty of tears for you the reader, as the mystery and intrigue will grip and pull you along with Jakes journey. A journey building up to an ending that no one could have ever imagined or seen coming!

Final Daze: "God's Way, or the Highway!"
Book 3 in the Daze Series

In 2010, a poll showed that more than 80% of Americans claim to be Christians. At first glance that is one impressive figure. However, if we read what Jesus told His followers in Matthew 7:13-14, we see a serious contradiction between that poll finding and the Word of God. It is apparent, from what Jesus says, the gate and road to hell are "broad," and flooded with "many." Jesus taught in Matthew and Luke (13:24) that the gate to heaven is narrow like the path leading there. Furthermore, Jesus said that the narrow path has its difficulties, causing "few" to find and be able to enter the gate! Scriptures put the Bible at odds with the poll.

Final Daze: "God's Way, or the Highway," is an in depth examination of the narrow path, gate, and Romans 1:16-32 where Paul tells the people they have exchanged Biblical truths for their own understandings and wisdom. Not only do they believe their ways to be wiser than God's way, but they worship their choices. Paul says God is close to turning them over to their error filled ways, lustful lifestyles, and degrading passions, once and for all! When God decides to turn mankind, individually and collectively, over to their own wickedness, it will be like a "spiritual fog, or daze" settling on and losing them to follow their sin, as they move ever closer to the final darkness and hell!

Thorn Daze: The Painful Truth About Prosperity Teaching
Book 2 in the Daze Series

If you are struggling to understand why God has not healed you, than Thorn Daze is a must-read book. Pastor Zimmer candidly shares his personal struggles with healing, and only after many years of trial and error does he come to accept, understand, and apply the teachings of the Apostle Paul in 2 Corinthians 12:7-10 to his life. In a world that is filled with quick fixes for just about everything, the believer can easily lose faith when they are going through an emotional, spiritual, or physical storms. Too often, believers become so desperate to be rid of their physical and emotional struggles that they grasp at spiritual straws with the hope of discovering a God sent miracle and healing.

Pastor Zimmer examines the prosperity teaching movement in relation to 2 Corinthians 12:7-10, and discovers that he and other believers may be left to suffer in order to bring God glory. Through prayer, and His manifested grace, the believer can come to discover that His grace is more than sufficient in relieving pain and suffering. This is an open and honest look at the authors own pain and suffering over the years; his personal disappointment with God when it came to not being healed; and how he's grown to accept God's all sufficient grace and perfect will for his life.

Prodigal Daze: My Long Road Home
Book 1 in the Daze Series

Prodigal Daze is a very candid and at times, graphic portrayal of a young pastor's downward spiral into the dark world of pornography, failed marriages, and failed attempts at ministry. The willingness of the author to talk about the unthinkable should serve as a beacon of hope for any believer who is struggling with similar issues and hopelessly trapped in ungodly and unholy cravings and lifestyles. Prodigal Daze will lovingly and explicitly move the reader from Romans 7 (defeated by sin) to Romans 8 (victory over sin).

Prodigal Daze is a must-read book for all believers, because sin is something we are all subject to according to I John 1:5-10. The author shows us the patience of a loving Father who remains faithful to His promise to save us, even after we fall. Prodigal Daze speaks to every believer about the courage to move forward in midst of your trials.
