

BestMentalist.com Releases Their 2017 List of Best Mentalists

BestMentalist.com has released their latest ranking of mentalists

October 5, 2017 (FPRC) -- BestMentalist.com has today revealed their latest 2017 ranking of the best mentalists. This comes barely two weeks after the firm announced that it was in the final stages before listing its top mentalists for the year. Unsurprisingly, the Amazin Kreskin, Derren Brown, Ehud Segev, and other household figures in the field of mentalism made it to this year's top 7 spots.

Best Mentalist is an organization that conducts independent reviews of talent in the mentalism sector and releases annual rankings on a consistent basis. According to information instructed on the firm's official website, they are not affiliated to any particular mentalist and provide unbiased information to their audience. BestMentalist.com usually aims to help event organizers and party planners who might want to bring in some unique entertainment to figure out which mentalist to engage. In addition to publishing competitive rankings, BestMentalist.com also provides comprehensive information on some of the world's leading mentalists. The firm has said that it relies on ratings by other users, the number of events attended and critical acclaim given to decide who makes it to the top few positions.

The position one slot this year was captured by Derren Brown, who has been a leading voice in this sector for the last 20 years. Derren Brown has graced a lot of popular events and participated in numerous TV shows. The number two slot was taken by David Blaine, an American illusionist and endurance artist who made a name for himself on the streets of New York. Mr. Brown was born in Brooklyn and raised by a single mother. Although Brown's concentrates on street magic, his expertise is also evident in many other areas of mentalism.

Interestingly, popular Israeli mentalist Ehud Segev appeared at position three in this year's ranking. Mr. Segev is an internationally acclaimed mentalist and bestselling author. He was born in the Israeli city of Safed back in 1979. Since he was a teenager, Mr. Segev has been a national sensation in Israeli. He has also traveled the world and entertained guests in almost every major city. Mr. Segev's two books, Secrets of the Voice and 9 Steps to Influence, are global bestsellers.

Other mentalists who made it to the coveted top 7 positions include Marc Salem, the Amazin Kreskin, Uri Geller, and Marc Helfand. It'll be interesting to see how things will be looking by the time BestMentalist.com releases their next ranking sometimes next year.
