

Jazz-Singer Zoey Tess Live on PPRN Radio

Jazz singer Zoey Tess joins PPRNRadio.net for a live performance, interview and roundtable talk

October 21, 2017 (FPRC) -- Hamden, Connecticut. Jazz singer Zoey Tess joins PPRN Online Radio for a live performance, interview and roundtable talk on Wednesday, October 25th from 7:30pm-10:30pm. Listen in live on pprnradio.net or catch the show later on seven different online channels including iTunes. Born in Coconut Creek, Florida, Zoey Tess is a jazz singer, songwriter and pianist. She began playing piano at the age of four and discovered Jazz music after listening to a Sarah Vaughan record.

Shortly after, Tess began writing her own piano and vocal compositions. Tess's Aunt is legendary screen actress Corinne Camacho who starred in the daytime soap opera 'Days of Our Lives', and the American Western drama television series 'Little House on the Prairie'. Tess hopes to follow in the footsteps of her famous Aunt, sharing a similar love for performing, the piano and charity work. Tess is currently working on her first studio album with the help of some legendary jazz, blues, and R&B musicians. She looks forward to performing her new songs acoustic and talking about the inspiration behind the music and the artists that inspire her.

Founded in May 2012, PPRN Radio is broadcast live – uncensored, unscripted and unapologetic – every Tuesday and Wednesday evening at 7pm ET via Spreaker.com and is then made available via podcast over seven different online channels – Spreaker.com, iTunes, iHeartRadio, TuneIn, Stitcher, EDM2Go.com and YouTube.

Every month, PPRN Radio reaches between from 300,000 to 500,000 across the United States and in more than 100 countries. The program is consistently in the Top 5 of Spreaker.com's comedy programming. For more information visit facebook.com/zoeytessmusic or pprnradio.net
