About Nopoku
At Nopoku, the belief that authentic African print women's clothing, men's clothing, children's clothing and accessories should be affordable and accessible to anyone wishing to dabble in the effects of vibrant color serves as a guide. Throughout the production process, utmost care is taken to ensure that final products are nothing less than perfect! The quality of African print fabrics and materials used during the production process further buttresses this belief.

Finally, Nopoku is a socially conscious organization and provides an avenue through which foreign exchange is earned by its partners in Africa.
